

Lunch & Learn

WHEN: Friday
October 30, 2020
11:30am - 12:30pm

THE PARADOX OF PRIVILEGE

LEARNING IS ON YOU. LUNCH IS ON US.

For more lunch details, please contact Melisa Moore at melisa.moore@millstoneweber.com

.....

“The Paradox of Privilege” examines how privilege fosters or mitigates how we associate in society. Join us for a candid, non-judgmental, essential conversation of how the two sides of privilege can be leveraged to make this world work for us all. Then join the MW Equity Initiative Collective and put the “Power of Privilege” to work to effect real change. We need every champion for diversity, equity and inclusion at the table. Together we can “Be the Difference” we all want to see. More in store...

.....

- WHERE: Zoom Weblink and Call-In from the Innovation Conference Room
- ZOOM INFO IN EMAIL

about the presenter

ROB GOOD is a retired high school social studies teacher (Ladue High School) and an adjunct professor at the University of Missouri—St. Louis. In his 27-year career as a high school teacher Rob focused on issues of equity and inclusion in both the curriculum and the policies and practices of his school community. He has facilitated diversity workshops and dialogue groups for a wide variety of organizations including the National Conference for Community and Justice—St. Louis, the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri, the YWCA’s Witnessing Whiteness Program, Focus St. Louis, and CommUnity—Santa Barbara. He has also served on the staffs of NCCJ St. Louis’ Anytown Youth Leadership Institute, the Dismantling Racism Institute, and the Inclusion Institute for Educators. Rob has a Bachelor’s degree in history from Westminster College, a Master’s degree in history from Ohio University, and a Ph.D. in Education from the University of Missouri—St. Louis. Rob was named the Tachau Teacher of the Year by the Organization of American Historians in 2012, a Peabody Leader in Education in 2015, and the Missouri Teacher of the Year by the Gilder Lehrman Institute in 2016. Rob also received a Brotherhood/Sisterhood Award from NCCJ-St. Louis in 2017.

Questions? Contact Vivian Martain, Civil Rights Compliance Manager at vivian.martain@millstoneweber.com